GARY PETCAVICH tries out treadmill in new YMCA facility during open house

On the 50-yard line

By JOHN WELCH

College football is getting into full swing this week. Who will win the national championship this year? Will it be one of the schools you hear mentioned year-after-year? The UCL's, Indiana, North Carolina, Kentucky or Louisville.

Or will it be a Georgetown or a Virginia, which has built powers in recent years?

Or will it be some schools we don't hear much about, like Wichita State or Auburn-Birmingham?

UCLA has a new coach in Larry Farmer and is determined to get UCL's PAC-10 championship again. Poor UCL's who's won the PAC-10 in two years. The Bruins will be led by Mike Sanders (two) and Rod "Rocket" Foster a superb ball player. Look for the Bruins to win the PAC-10 this year.

Berwick stops Chiefs in title semi-final game

Lakeland did all its scoring in the second quarter as Berwick defeated the Chiefs 25-11 in an Eastern Conference Class A semifinal game played Saturday at Berwick.

The Chiefs' last score came in the second quarter after Berwick had run up a 10-0 lead based on a field goal and touchdown.

The first Lakeland score also came on a field goal — a 32-yard kick through the uprights by Steve Domonosi.

Following that score, Berwick came back with a 35-yard score and a two-point conversion to raise its lead to 16-3.

However, the Jerry Wadlock-coached Chiefs came right back and scored, when Ken Schwenkperferer led a pass to Chris Claus, good for a 35-yard scoring play.

Aberkirk took a pass from Schwenkperferer for the two-point conversion.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, although Lakeland had a scoring drive going, which was as close as the Chiefs' defense could get. The Chiefs' defense was in the end zone for the first time in the game.

Council president McMyne tells Mayor Mancuso of violations

In a letter dated Nov. 25, Carbonade City Council President James A. McMyne informed Mayor Fred J. Mancuso of violations of the city's home rule charter in the administration's presentation of the 1982 budget.

McMyne wrote:

"In response to a conversation with Finance Director Joseph Mason, on Monday, Nov. 23, 1981, in which he informed me that it is your intent to proceed with the Home Rule Charter, council wishes to inform you of the following violations of the charter in your presentation of the 1982 budget:

"Section 802 — Submission of General Fund Budget:

"On or before the first day of November of each year, the Mayor shall submit to the Council a budget for the ensuing year. (Violation: Council did not receive budget until Monday, Nov. 16, 1981.)

"Section 803 — Budget Message:

"The budget shall be accompanied by a message which shall include: (Violation: No message received.)

"(1) An explanation of the expenditures and revenues in the proposed budget, indicating and explaining major changes from the current year. (Violation: No explanation received.)

"(2) An outline of proposed programs and an explanation of new, expanded, or abolished programs or projects. (Violation: No proposals received.)

"(3) A summary of the City's debt position. (Violation: No summary of debt received.)

"(4) Such other material that will inform the Council and the public of municipal affairs. (Violation: No information received.)

"(5) A summary of your Budget as presented to Council 16 days late, and in violation of the aforementioned Sections of the Home Rule Charter, is in violation of Council that your Budget was submitted, illegal, and Council is not bound by the provisions of these Sections, nor can they be held responsible until such time as your office follows the correct procedure in presenting your Budget to Council.

"Your attention is also called to Section 809 — Tax Levy:

"Council shall establish tax rates and levy on the various subjects of taxation.

"It is the belief of Council, that it is in the best interests of the Administration, Council, and the citizens of the City of Carbonade, that amiable and constructive communication between your Office and Council, be established as soon as possible.

"Your prompt response will be sincerely appreciated."

His dream nearly comes true as mine collapses around him

By STEFAN KIKLAK

(Editor's note: Mr. Kiklak is the Carbonade Mirror's Clifford area correspondent.)

My grandfather, who migrated to the United States, lived in Jersey for 30 years when he returned to his native country, to the village of Wierzbica where I was born and brought up.

It was 15 at the time and I remember one story he told us very well.

It was about a dream he had one night. In this dream he saw himself dead.

He saw his friends in terrible excitement and confusion around him. He saw the undertaker backing his hearse to the porch of the home where he lived on Laskawana Street.

He saw how they were carrying him out the house and how he got to the funeral home.

When he was lowered down to the grave, he cried out, "Let me out!"

He enjoyed the funeral services, but when he was lowered down to the grave, he cried out, "Let me out!"

He was lowered down to the grave, he cried out, "Let me out!"

He was lowered down to the grave, he cried out, "Let me out!"

He was lowered down to the grave, he cried out, "Let me out!"

He was lowered down to the grave, he cried out, "Let me out!"
